Governing law; jurisdiction: The terms herein are governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey without reference to the principles of conflicts of laws thereof. The arbitrator will be selected pursuant to the Rules from a panel of persons having experience with and knowledge of the industry. The place of arbitration shall be a mutually agreeable location in New Jersey, and the laws of the State of New Jersey shall govern the dispute. The arbitration shall be conducted in the language in which the contract was written. It is the intent of the Parties that, barring extraordinary circumstances, arbitration proceedings will be concluded within 60 days from the date the arbitrators are appointed. The arbitral tribunal may extend this time limit in the interests of justice. Failure to adhere to this time limit shall not constitute a basis for challenging the award. The panel's decision shall be final and legally binding and judgment may be entered thereon. Each party shall be responsible for its share of the arbitration fees in accordance with the Rules of the American Arbitration Association. In the event a party fails to proceed with arbitration, unsuccessfully challenges the panel's award, or fails to comply with the panel's award, the other party is entitled to costs of suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee for having to compel arbitration or defend or enforce the award.
